SPCA®
WELLINGTON

Story Starter

It was a cold rainy day and as I walked down the street I noticed a dog. The dog was chained to a laundry line on the side of a house. I could see its ribs sticking out and there was no where for the dog to go to get out of the rain.

Story Starter

I visited the SPCA today and saw a lot of animals. There was one cat that had a litter of kittens that the owner didn't want any more. There was also a rabbit that got lost and couldn't find its way home. I also saw lots of dogs and puppies looking for new homes. I thought about things I could do to help.
